About the University

The School of Economics, Law and Medical Sciences (Lipinski University) was founded in 1997. The legal basis for the functioning of the University is the decree of the Ministry of Education № DNS-1-0145-266 / TBM / 97 (entry in the register of non-state higher education institutions and associations of non-state higher education institutions – no. 132).

The School of Economics, Law and Medical Sciences (Lipinski University) is not only the best and the largest private educational institution in the region, but is also among the top universities in the country. Lipinski University has also the largest number of foreign students in the region.

The University ranks high in nationwide papers such as «Polityka», «Wprost», «Newsweek». Our students also run their own newspaper, which is published as a supplement to the most popular newspaper in the region.

The University offers high quality education in 4 main areas: law, economics, medical science and social science.
