Renee Selikowitz has been teaching English and training teachers for a number of years. Her teaching life began in South Africa. In 2001, she moved to Prague for a year and started teaching a mixture of general and business English courses – she has been here ever since and says that Prague makes her heart sing. During her time in Prague, she has worked as a senior teacher, responsible for observations, mentoring, training and resource development; taught marketing and financial English at a private university, and worked as a TEFL trainer. Renee has been working for the British Council in Prague since 2010, where she teaches all levels and ages and is an examiner for the Cambridge Starters, Movers and Flyers exam for kids, as well as PET, FCE and CAE exams for teens and adults.
